A white plate with a red rim holds two sushi rolls. The roll in the foreground is wrapped in dark nori and topped with a thick, creamy white sauce and a garnish of purple shiso leaves. Behind it is another similar roll. Three slices of cucumber are arranged to the left of the rolls. A decorative drizzle of white sauce with green herbs and a red flower-shaped garnish is on the plate. The text "Cucumella alla Diapirata" is written in red cursive on the plate.
